

PUBLISH YOUR WORK!

We welcome your submissions! If you are between the ages of 6 and 14 you are eligible to have your writing or artwork published in a future issue of Flying Ship. Our editors will review your work and let you know if there is a place for it in Flying Ship, either in the printed magazine or on the website. Just about any creative work that you can fit in an envelope is acceptable. It must be original—created by you and not copied from anywhere else. We are particularly interested in the following items:

- Short stories — 2000 words or less (about two typed pages). We particularly like ILLUSTRATED stories!
- Poetry • Reviews of your favorite book
- Artwork — drawings, paintings, collage, photography—you name it!
- Jokes or short comic strips • Recipes • Games or puzzles
- Anything you think would look good in Flying Ship Magazine!

Please mail your submissions to: Flying Ship Magazine, PO Box 1159, Norwich, VT 05055

If you would like your work returned to you, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

BE SURE TO INCLUDE YOUR NAME, AGE, AND TOWN OF RESIDENCE.

HOW DO WE SELECT WHICH SUBMISSIONS TO PUBLISH?

Although a specific contest (art, illustrated short stories, etc.) may be part of certain issues, as presented on the cover of this issue, the general content of Flying Ship is not a competition. Selection of contributions is based on a number of criteria as stated below. It is also important to recognize that we keep all submitters' work on file. Even if we do not publish certain pieces in the upcoming issue, we may still publish it in a future issue.

Factors considered for selection of submissions for publication:

- Theme (if any) of issue: Although not all published work will relate to the theme, work that corresponds to the theme is more likely to be published than work which does not.
- Space available: There is limited space in the magazine and on the website. However, more will be published on the website than in the magazine, and sometimes a preview will appear in the magazine and be continued on the website.
- Genre: We like to include a mixture of artwork, stories, poetry and other genres in every issue.
- Age of submitter: Age categories are 6-8 year olds, 9-10 year olds, and 11-14 year olds. We include contributions from all categories in each issue.
- Presentation: This is an important factor! Did you take the time to make your writing or artwork look your very best? Be sure to check your spelling, type or write neatly, draw or paint on nice paper.
- Editor's discretion: We always receive more publishable items than we have room to print. After considering all of the above criteria, our team of editors may select pieces at random and keep others on file for possible future publication.

PARENTAL PERMISSION

(required for publication of child's work)

By signing below, you authorize the use or reproduction of your child's writing and/or artwork without being entitled to payment.

The copyright ownership will be retained by your child, with the understanding that it will be published on the Flying Ship website (www.flyingship.org) and/or in the Flying Ship printed magazine. It will be published once (if in print) or for an indefinite period online. If you wish to have your child's work removed from our website, you must contact us and request that this be done.

Our policy is to print your child's full name, town of residence, and age in the credits for his or her creation. If you would like any of these items to be omitted for security or privacy reasons, please let us know.

If you wish to withdraw this authorization, it will be your responsibility to inform the publishers of Flying Ship Magazine.

I give permission for my child's work to be published on the Flying Ship website and/or in print.
